Germans Face New Disaster in France

BRITISH BLAST INTO CENTER OF DEFENSES

To the South, Americans Meet Little Opposition in Push Into Brittany.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Aug. 2—The British Second army has broken through the center of the German line, threatening to crush Marshal Von Kluge's forces in the high ground south of Caen in a second great Normandy debacle, field dispatches announced today.

To the south, American spearheads knifed through German resistance soft as butter toward a "second Cherbourg" — isolation and capture of the Brittany peninsula with its two big ports of Brest and St. Nazaire.

Fanning out through Pontorson, 13 miles southwest of Avranches, Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's armored and doughboy columns were within 30 miles of Rennes, in the center of the Brittany peninsula baseline and the provincial capital.

Nazis Lose 20,000
The break in the center of the Germans' line by Lt. Gen. Sir Miles Dempsey's British thrust, ended to engulf the remainder of enemy defenses which had suffered the loss of 20,000 prisoners in a week and the destruction of near destruction of a dozen divisions.

A front dispatch said German troops were stumbling back in retreat north of Villers-Bocage, the key to the enemy defense perimeter in the Caumont sector. Due south of Caumont, British armored patrols were dashing beyond captured Le Beny-Bocage in the area just north of the key communications city of Vire.

Driving east from Le Beny-Bocage British tanks seized a "sausage feature" spur shown on the map at hill 266. Simultaneously other British columns farther north stormed and captured hill 381 and gained all the high ground east of the Homme woods, thereby completing a virtual strangle hold on a bitterly defended stretch of forest. Germans still fighting in the woods now have only a narrow escape corridor to the south.

Americans Spread Out
Two American armored spearheads were fanning out below Avranches.

The Americans slushing forward in Brittany had not yet encountered notable organized opposition. They swept through Pontorson, 13 miles southwest of Avranches.

The second spearhead pushing toward the interior of France captured Montgomerie, seven miles southeast of Avranches.

Some twenty miles to the northeast, where the Germans have been trying vainly to establish an anchor for their battered 80-mile line, the hotly contested Normandy cities of Percy and Tassy-Sur-Vire fell to the Americans while Villiers-Les-Poels, which already has been bypassed, was being cleared.

British Over Hump
British troops were over the hump of the highest ground between the north coast and Vire, 40 miles inland, and were fanning out with the Americans over better fighting country promising an even graver threat to the center of the Germans' line.

American troops alone captured 20,000 prisoners in the first eight days of the offensive, which now is in its ninth day.

Along the eastern hinge of the allied line south of Caen powerful, elite German forces were offering the most resolute resistance of the whole campaign.

Combined U. S., British, Soviet Knockout Blow Against Nazis Planned at Tehran Conference

Churchill Reveals Coordinated Smash Against Germans Was Result of Parley in Iran.

By The Associated Press
LONDON, Aug. 2—Prime Minister Churchill disclosed today that the Normandy invasion and the coordinated Red Army offensive resulted from an agreement with Premier Stalin at Tehran and said that axis armies were receding "on very battle front all over the world."

The news from Normandy, he told a cheering house of commons, is extremely good and "the first American army advancing down the Atlantic coast might well be approaching the important railway center of Rennes, about halfway across the base of the Breast peninsula."

Of Italy he said: "We hope that operations of the utmost vigor will be continued by General Alexander (allied commander-in-chief) and his army throughout the summer and autumn."

But he added that while things were going well there, "it is the Russian army who have done the most work tearing the guts out of the German army."

The prime minister brought the war sharply home to Britons with the disclosure that 4,735 persons have been killed by rocket bombs, with 14,000 injured and 817,000 homes destroyed or damaged since the attacks began June 15.

He said the invasion of Normandy June 6 fulfilled a promise made to Stalin at Tehran that such a plan would be put into operation at the end of May or the beginning of June.

Stalin Made Promise
In return, he said, the Soviet leader promised "that the whole of the Russian armies would be thrown, as indeed they have been, into the general battle in the east."

Churchill said that Britain's fleet in the Asiatic waters would be greatly strengthened by the end of the year and expressed belief that the interval between the defeat of Hitler and the defeat of Japan "will be shorter—perhaps much shorter—than I had at one time supposed."

Telling of the plan to augment British Asiatic naval forces, he said "it is probable, however, that the Japanese fleet will have its time taken up with the navy of the United States, which is already double the size of that presumptive power."

Churchill said he did not believe the invasion of France "could have been executed any earlier."

Supremacy Established
"In the air, on the sea and under the sea our well-established supremacy increases with steady strides," the confident prime minister told the house.

When the invasion started, the American and British-Canadian forces were about even in strength. United States forces now are larger, he disclosed.

The losses of the British and Canadians were proportionally about the same as those of the Americans and "it has been shared and shared alike all along the front."

Of Italy, Churchill said: "We may hope that operations of the utmost vigor will be continued by Gen. Alexander and his army throughout the summer and autumn."

BERLIN HINTS ACTION WILL LEAD TO WAR

Blow to Hitler Comes as Finns Move Toward Peace with Russia.

Special to The Star
LONDON, Aug. 2—Turkey aligned herself with the United Nations today to the extent of breaking off diplomatic and economic relations with Germany and there were broad indications that powerful Soviet Russia soon would consider a new Finnish request for an armistice guaranteeing Finland's independence.

It was reported reliably in Stockholm that Marshal Baron Mannerheim had received Russian assurances before he assumed the presidency of Finland yesterday.

Berlin broadcasts promptly heralded Turkey's action as a "prelude to war." Prime Minister Churchill told commons that if Germany now attacks Turkey "we shall make common cause with her and take the German menace as well as we can in our stride."

Germany officially had nothing to say immediately on the Turkish action. Berlin broadcasts said its "attitude will be forthcoming only when the official message giving proper reasons for Turkey's step are received in Berlin."

Report Germans Leaving
Helsinki reports received in Stockholm said German garrisons already were moving out of southern Finland although Berlin broadcasts quoted a foreign office as saying the change of Finland's government "indicates the Finnish people are all out to pull their whole weight in the war effort."

This setback for Hitler on the Balkan flank followed swiftly upon a governmental shift in Helsinki which was believed the first step toward taking Finland out of the war as a co-belligerent of the reich. This shift moved Marshal Carl Gustaf Mannerheim to the presidency to succeed Risto Ryti, resigned.

Turkey's severance of ties with Germany was disclosed by the Turkish home radio and was confirmed almost immediately by Berlin broadcasts.

President Sukarno Saragoejo announced the cabinet's decision to make the break, telling the national assembly by air that it had been requested by Britain, with United States support. The assembly promptly ratified the decision.

Berlin had promised Turkey "economic and financial help and war equipment," the premier said, "to meet the difficulties which would arise" from the action.

The break is effective at midnight tonight.

Speaking before 413 delegates of the assembly, Saragoejo said the step did not mean that Turkey would enter the war, but that such a possibility "would depend on the attitude of the other side."

This indicated Turkey, which has more than 1,000,000 well-trained soldiers, would enter the fight only if Germany started hostile action.

U. S. Joins Request
Saragoejo said that Britain, with United States support, had asked Turkey "within the limits of our agreement, (mutual assistance alliance) to break diplomatic and economic relations" with Germany.

The break—a major blow to German prestige—may have an important effect upon shaky Balkan satellites, particularly Bulgaria, which has shown increasing indications recently of desiring to leave the company of Germany and move closer to Soviet Russia.

Turkish trade with Germany already is drastically reduced. It cut off shipments of chrome several months ago. Such strategic materials as cotton, copper, fish, oil-seeds and mohair now will be barred.

The axis had wind of the trend before the action was taken. Berlin broadcasts had warned the Turks that a break in diplomatic and economic relations would mean war. Rumors circulated in Ankara that the Japanese were about to break off diplomatic relations with Turkey.

The leadership of war-weary Finland changed overnight. The assumption of the presidency by

U. S. CONQUERS TINIAN ISLAND

Jap Resistance Crumbles Rapidly on Guam; Yanks Land on Rota.

By The Associated Press
Tinian island has been conquered, enemy resistance is disintegrating rapidly on Guam and, said a broadcast credited to Tokyo today, American troops have launched their fourth Marianas invasion with landings on Rota.

There was no allied confirmation of the reported move against Rota, which lies between Guam and Tinian, but 22 American sea and air attacks since June 11 presumably had it ripe for invasion.

Adm. Chester Nimitz announced last night that Tinian, after nine days of land fighting, had been conquered. Organized resistance collapsed Monday night. Two fine airfields, already in operation, and a harbor were fruits of the campaign, which was speeded to its swift end by a lethal American secret weapon.

Seal Doom for 10,000 Japs
Marines and army troops on Guam crammed 10,000 enemy soldiers toward Guam's northern end, sealing their doom. Another harbor and airfield and Agaña, the capital city, already were in U. S. hands and in use. Planes aided the clean-up by unloading bombs and rockets on the trapped Japanese.

Allied forces on New Guinea expanded their Vogelkop peninsula beachhead and went over to the offensive 700 miles eastward.

134th Field Artillery, Part of 37th, Returns
COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 2—Fifth service command officials disclosed today the 134th field artillery battalion of the 37th division, had been returned intact to Camp Atterbury, Ind., from the South Pacific. Average battle casualties comprise 550 men.

After cursory medical examinations the men will be granted 30-day leaves, returning to Camp Atterbury upon their expiration. The battalion did not see action with the 37th division at Bougainville and other battles as it was being stationed elsewhere, it was explained. Further information about the unit was not announced.

Small Consumer Hard Hit In New Limits on Lumber Sales

Lumber has moved into substantially the same category as metals in the eyes of the war production board, which yesterday took far-reaching steps to conserve available lumber for military and other high-priority needs.

Marion lumber dealers and those throughout the nation were put under WPB restrictions that will let them sell only about 100 feet of lumber a day to the type of customer who is trying to get a few boards to fix his steps or put up a shelf. Marion dealers pointed out 100 feet a day wouldn't begin to take care of daily calls for lumber, and added the situation is particularly bad because much of this 100 feet must be used for mill work, leaving the occasional small buyer of lumber virtually none.

Whether an individual's lumber needs are critical enough to entitle him to qualify for a priority rating is up to the WPB. Persons or businesses may make application to the WPB office in Columbus if they feel the WPB might approve their plans for the use of lumber.

Farmers are in a little better position with a 300 foot quota to work on and provision made for the local war food administration office on East Church street to pass on applications for amounts above that figure.

WPB officials said the new control was exercised because of the tremendously expanded war needs, the wide substitution of wood for metal and the production limitations created by manpower and equipment shortages.

They said it concerns all uses of lumber, wholesale and retail of lumber, wholesale and retail of lumber, and all but the smallest distributors and all but the smallest saw mills. It also affects the use of lumber for housework, for shelves or bookcases as well as the large industrial users.

Total sales to small consumers will be limited to approximately 100 feet a day at any lumber yard—if the lumber is available.

In directives to dealers in this area the WPB placed consumers in four groups according to the quantities of lumber and the purposes for which it is used. They are:

- 1.—The army and navy (which have an unlimited allocation and have been using approximately 35 per cent of all the lumber produced in the present quarter).
- 2.—Class 1 consumers (those who use more than 50,000 feet per quarter).
- 3.—Class 2 consumers (who are permitted to purchase lumber in amounts up to a total of 50,000 feet per quarter to fill orders rated by the WPB).
- 4.—Farm trade (which is given allocations up to 300 feet. Needs over this amount must be referred to the local food administration office.)

STRIKE BRINGS RACE TROUBLE

Martial Law Asked in Philadelphia as Brigands Roam Streets.

By The Associated Press
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2—The Philadelphia citizens committee asked Mayor Bernard Smauel today to declare martial law in Philadelphia to prevent an assumption of Negro-White fights, and gang looting attendant upon a tieup of the city's bus, trolley and subway system.

The committee, which also asked President Roosevelt to seize the paralyzed transportation system, said that if "the insubordination and reaction" is permitted to continue it will be "the beginning of the spread of reaction against other minority peoples, particularly the Jews and Catholics."

In Washington the war labor board considered asking President Roosevelt to order troops to take over the transportation lines.

Meanwhile, employees of the Philadelphia Transportation Co. at a mass meeting heard that their leaders will ask a government-sponsored vote on the issue of the employment of Negroes as drivers.

ROTARY HEARS TALK BY ST. MARY PASTOR

Father Spickerman Speaks of Prayer as Wartime Aid.

Evidence of a widespread trend toward religion as a source of solace and hope to a war-torn world was heard by members of the Marion Rotary club and guests when Rev. Father William J. Spickerman, pastor of St. Mary Catholic church, spoke following the club's weekly luncheon meeting at Hotel Harding yesterday.

Taking at his theme "The Power of Prayer in Warfare," Father Spickerman spoke of circumstances which indicate that increasing numbers of both civilians and men in the fighting forces are directing thoughts and words toward divine aid and comfort. Commenting that "the rosary has gone to war," he said "the Doughboys are clamoring for rosaries" and the call for them has become so great that the supply is running behind the demand, a situation complicated considerably by long-established production points in European countries having been cut off by war. Every possible means is being provided to replace these discontinued sources, however, and a solution has been largely found in Mexico, he informed the audience. There many thousands of families are making rosaries in their homes and from them come most of the supply needed to meet the flood of calls coming from home and fighting fronts.

Going back into history, Father Spickerman referred to notable examples of how prayer has provided strength and inspiration for forces fighting for the right. He spoke in particular about the conflicts of centuries ago between the Turks and Christians, in which the Christian legions were victorious and for the victories leaders of the church gave credit to the power of prayer rather than the force of arms.

Father Spickerman said St. Mary church has entered its third year of daily prayers for the welfare and safety of boys in the service, including those of all faiths and creeds.

He was introduced as the speaker by Municipal Judge W. D. Hazen, rotary club program chairman.

Guests of the club were Robert K. Porter of Mansfield, Clarence W. Snyder of Trenton, N. J., and L. A. Aze of Marion.

HAM FISH VICTOR, CLARK TRAILING
By The Associated Press
Rep. Hamilton Fish, veteran of many a political rough and tumble during his 24 years in congress, added another victory to his record today—renomination by Republicans of New York's 25th district over the opposition of presidential nominee Thomas E. Dewey.

In Kansas, U. S. Senator Clyde M. Reed, Parsons publisher, won Republican renomination. With 1,802 precincts in out of 2,742, Reed held 53,357 votes over 34,108 for Carl E. Friend, Lawrence Lumberman.

And in another nationally-watched primary held yesterday, Senator Bennett Clark of Missouri trailed in a close battle for Democratic renomination against state Attorney General Roy McKittick, who campaigned as a Roosevelt administration supporter.

Dewey had accused Fish of raising religious and racial issues by being quoted as saying the Jews are generally for President Roosevelt's New Deal.

Fish's opponent, Augustus W. Bennett, a Newburg lawyer, already had won the Democratic and American-Labor nominations and is to oppose Fish again in the November elections, possibly also as an independent Republican candidate.

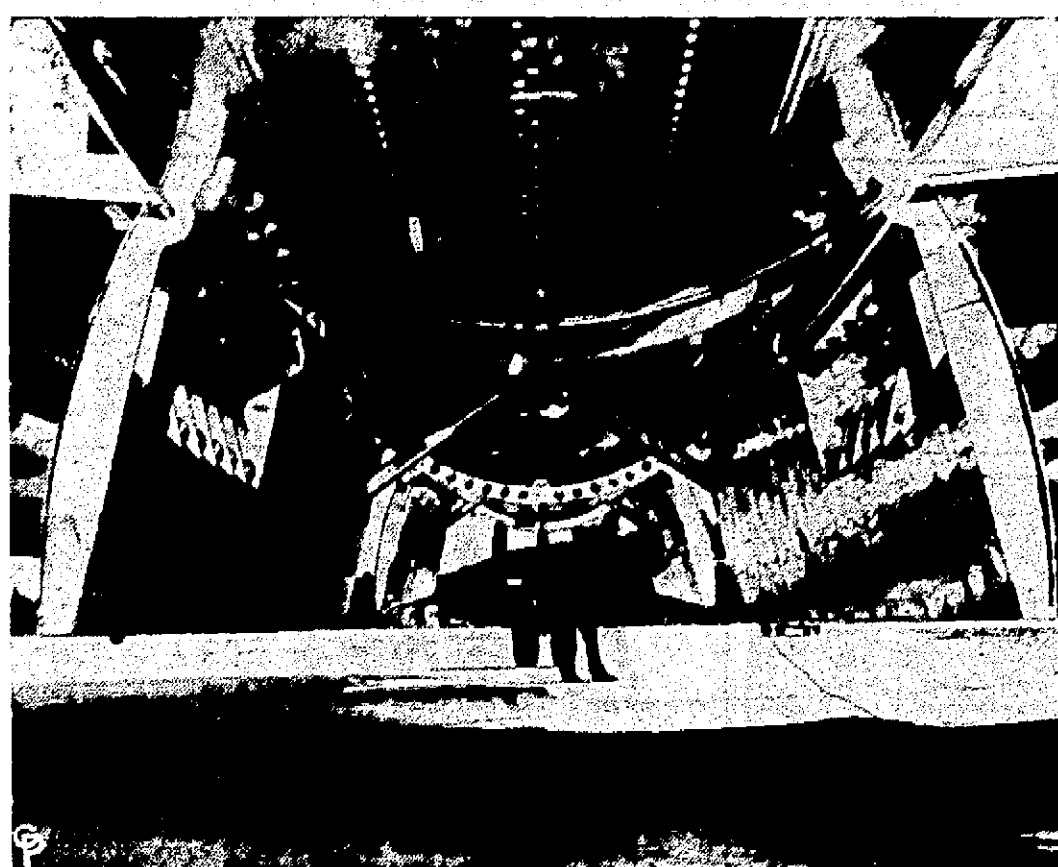

When 232 of the district's 278 precincts had reported, this was the count: Fish 13,977, Bennett 10,694.

McKittick in his campaign criticized Clark for his pro-war foreign policy stand against the administration, and Clark made the argument that he was trying to keep the country out of war.

Their comparative totals were: 2707 of the state's 4,512 precincts had reported were: McKittick 107,415, Clark 101,508.

Governor Forrest Donnell piled up a steadily growing lead over six opponents for the Republican nomination for senator from Missouri.

Gerald L. K. Smith Hails Renomination of Fish
By The Associated Press
DETROIT, Aug. 2.—The renomination of Congressman Hamilton Fish of New York was termed today by Gerald L. K. Smith, organizer and national director of the American First party, as "proof that you can't keep a good man down no matter how many people jump on him."

Smith made his comment as he called The Associated Press to get latest election returns from New York's Republican primary and was informed that Fish held a decisive margin.

The America First party organizer also disclosed that the party's state executive committee, at a caucus last night, had selected another vice presidential candidate to replace Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, but withheld the new nominee's name until formal announcement later today. He had hinted earlier only that the committee's choice would be "an Ohio man."

Commons Assured Peace Won't Be Hasty
By The Associated Press
LONDON, Aug. 2.—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden assured the house of commons today there would not be any peace made with Germany in the next seven weeks—although he held out the possibility that the enemy might surrender in that period.

Opposing a government motion for a common recess until Sept. 26, Laborite John Lawson said: if the allies were to beat Germany in that period the government then would make peace—and he didn't like the sort of peace they would make.

Eden replied: "You need not be anxious. There is not the least risk of anything like that happening. You are really confusing two different things—the surrender of the enemy with terms of the peace which are altogether later stage than the surrender."

After two hours of debate, commons agreed on the recess until Sept. 26.

Showers Help Crops in Most Parts of Ohio, Others Still Dry

Corn, Soybeans and Pasture Benefitted; Marion Still Listed in Drouth Area.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 2.—Most of Ohio received beneficial showers during the past week, but there is a general and immediate need for more rain, the weather bureau reported today.

George W. Minding, meteorologist in charge of the Columbus office, said reports from various stations in the state showed recent rainfall had brought a marked improvement in the appearance of corn, pastures, soybeans and truck crops.

He said that in the past two weeks less than half an inch of rain was reported by stations at Cleveland, Marion, Greenville, Irwin (Union county) and Pikeston. Other stations had reported up to an inch of rain.

From various sections of the state weather observers reported the following conditions prevailing:

Sandusky—More rain needed despite heavy showers. Pastures brown. Corn and soybeans not much damaged but growth slow.

Cleveland—Drought intensified. Damage to corn marked. Pastures and some fruit injured. Many gardens ruined. Milk shortage threatened.

Wooster—Light showers insufficient and more rain needed.

Akron—Early corn stunted and quite poor north of city. Pastures improved. Late corn and truck crops good.

Irwin—Possibly 50 per cent of corn damaged. Pastures burned out.

Circleville—Early corn lost. Recent rains saved pastures and late corn.

Cincinnati—Drought west of city continues.

Seneca—(Guernsey county)—Pastures, hay and corn rejuvenated by recent rains.

Ohio's water table has dropped two and one-half feet in the last three months because of the drouth, David Harker, chief of the state water supply board said yesterday.

The drop in the table, which represents the level of free water in the ground, has been noticeable during the current dry weather in many sections of the state, Harker said. He added that many small communities were without water because wells dried up.

The decline is abnormal and "temporarily alarming," Harker asserted, pointing out that while seasonal drops in the summer are expected, dry weather decreased the table 1.63 feet last year and there has not been enough rainfall to balance this loss.

The greatest drop in ground water was 19.08 feet recorded in Seneca county in the past three months. This drop was observed in only one spot and the county average, he said, might be considerably higher.

Decreases recorded in other counties included Jefferson 10.13 feet; Hamilton 4.07; Athens 4.84; Belmont 5.78; Brown 5.35; Highland 5.71; Marion 5.17; Miami 4.90; Warren 5.18 and Vinton 5.21.

Harker said that eventually a

County Election Board Gets Ready for Soldier Ballots

Scheduled To Start Next Wednesday: Applications Already Coming In.

The county board of will go in the mail starting Wednesday. Relatives of 175 other soldiers have been made applications for ballots to be sent.

Election officials emphasized that any man or woman from the county in military service who happens to get home on leave or furlough between next Wednesday and election day can go to the county board of elections and mark his or her ballots there. This method is expected to save the handling of scores of ballots through the mail.

Board Does Mailing

Officials also emphasized that relatives making application for ballots for a man or woman in service need only to fill out an application form at the board of elections office and furnish the proper information including the correct address of the man or woman in service. The election board takes care of mailing out the ballots.

Marion men and women in service for whom applications for ballots have been properly filed will receive three ballots, one for judicial candidates, one for presidential and vice presidential candidates, and one listing candidates for state, district and county offices. Those from some parts of the county where special issues are to be submitted will get an extra ballot for the special issues.

Early Filing Advised

Relatives are going to the board of elections regularly now to apply for ballots for men and women from this county in service. The applications may be filed any time but ballots that must travel long distances to the fighting fronts should be sent in the next few weeks to allow time for the ballots to reach their destination and get back to Marion by election day.

With more than 4,500 Marion county men and women in service, the handling of soldier ballots looms as a sizable one for the county election board. However, some of them are under voting age of 21, and it is expected that many will not ask for ballots. The offhand guess of election workers is that approximately half of the men and women in service from the county may ask for ballots, or about 2,250.

Eight Ohio Coal Miners Placed on Probation

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 2—Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood today placed on probation for one year eight eastern Ohio coal miners accused of interfering with government operation of coal mines.

Imposition of sentence was withheld, the judge said, because "I regard the actions of these men as performed more through mistake than any malice or wilful intent to do wrong."

The miners were indicted under the Smith-Connally anti-strike act by a grand jury on charges of encouraging fellow workers to strike at Piney Fork No. 1 mine of the M. A. Hanna Coal Co. in Jefferson county last December during formal operation of the pit.

They pleaded innocent upon arraignment but two weeks ago requested the court's permission to substitute pleas of "no contest," which was accepted today.

Roosevelt Has Commanding Lead In 8 States of Deep South, Poll Shows

By GEORGE GALLUP
American Institute of Public Opinion

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 2 —
The evidence, as of today, is that the belief that the Roosevelt revolt

of the deep South has reached below the leadership level.
There has been some popular defection from Roosevelt of course, and it is especially marked in those deep southern states which have showed strongest signs of revolt among the leaders, particularly in Mississippi where Roosevelt's strength runs 12 percentage points behind 1940.

Nevertheless, intensive interviewing by field reporters in scores of towns, cities, and farm areas in the deep Southern states shows Roosevelt retaining an overwhelming lead among the rank and file civilian voters.

And, assuming that the electors in these states follow the vote of the rank and file, the 90 electoral votes of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, and Texas can be placed, as of today, in the
"safely Democratic" column.

Interviewing in the present survey covers the period up to July 27, and does not therefore fully reflect the effects of the Democratic convention, which extended the "olive branch" to the South by nominating Senator
Harry S. Truman, instead of Henry
A. Wallace, whom many Southern political leaders dislike.

Following is the box score in these states today in answer to the question: "If the presidential election were being held today,
how would you vote—for Dewey
or for Roosevelt?"

This table shows the Roosevelt percentage of the major party vote in the eight states:

| PER CENT FOR ROOSEVELT | | |
|------------------------|------|-------|
| Electoral Votes | 1940 | Today |
| 11 Alabama | 86% | 86% |
| 9 Arkansas | 78 | 78 |
| 8 Florida | 74 | 65 |
| 12 Georgia | 53 | 44 |
| 10 Louisiana | 66 | 76 |
| 8 Mississippi | 96 | 84 |
| 8 So. Carolina | 96 | 89 |
| 23 Texas | 81 | 75 |
| 90 | | |

In addition to the deep Southern states, the Institute has also,
during the past three weeks, reported political sentiment among civilian voters in these five states
—New York, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, and Indiana. Governor Dewey has an advantage in all five, as of the period when the surveys were made:

| Electoral Votes | | |
|--------------------|----------------|-------|
| 1940 | Roose- velt | Dewey |
| 47 New York | 45% | 52% |
| 28 Illinois | 46 | 54 |
| 25 Ohio | 46 | 54 |
| 19 Michigan | 43 | 57 |
| 13 Indiana | 43 | 57 |
| 132 | | |

It should of course be remembered that the impact of events between now and election time may play a large part in the outcome of the campaign. The figures shown here represent sentiment only as of the period of interviewing.

Field reporters are at the present time completing surveys among civilian voters in the other five Southern states, Kentucky,
North Carolina, Tennessee, Oklahoma, and Virginia, as well as in all other states of the Union.
These will be reported in the future.

Ohio Wesleyan Approved
for Veterans' Training
DELAWARE, Aug. 2 — Ohio Wesleyan university has been given approval by the veterans' administration, acting under the GI bill of rights, as a training center for returning veterans.
Dean W. Earl Armstrong has announced. University officials said they expect to announce soon a number of courses of special interest to returning veterans.

In a conference with C. M.
Blackwell of Dayton, vocational rehabilitation officer for the district, the university officials were told that many Ohio schools will be approved for the training program, which will be made available to the returning veterans under 25 years of age. Ohio now has about 600,000 men and women in uniform, he said.

himself in an interesting political drama with Congressman

ing in a political advertisement

Anderson has challenged Fish

Anderson. Presidential candi-

Have a "Coke" = What's the hurry?

...a way to be carefree in the Caribbean

Between spells of duty at our southern outposts, the American soldier knows how to relax. Have a "Coke", says a thirsty Yank, and it's like a friendly invitation to fun or a chin-fest...the same as when you serve Coca-Cola in your home. From the Caribbean to the Arctic, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes...has become the high-sign of friendliness many places overseas.

"Coke" is Coca-Cola
It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".

Both Candidates Quiet Now, But Campaign Programs Are Under Way.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—Governor Dewey is doing about his best to keep quiet about his campaign program. He is not going to let the public know what he has in mind until he has decided on his own program. GOING—GOING—GOING

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Thursday, Aug. 2, 1924. President Paul von Hindenburg of Germany died and within seven hours Chancellor Adolf Hitler had succeeded him and ordered a nationwide plebiscite to be held Aug. 19. Adolf Hitler had formulated a new oath by which the reichswehr, standing army of Germany, would pledge its allegiance to Hitler.

Returning to Albany, he started receiving state delegations of congressmen (without their state chairmen). He has heard Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut separately so far.

Those who attended these meetings said they were like lodge meetings. Dewey did not make a speech, but simply devoted the meeting to understanding and organization. His friends always have given him credit for exceptional skill in organization.

On his trip west, he called in the Pennsylvania state delegation at Pittsburgh, the Illinois delegation at Springfield, and is getting the 26 Republican governors into his organizational ring with his planned two-day meeting at St. Louis. After that, the Missouri delegation was brought in.

Obviously, Dewey's game is to win upon these 26 states which concentrate through his organization will give him the election hands down, if he can get them.

Both Quiet but Busy During all this time, the usual campaign comments that daily emanate from a candidate have been avoided. When he went west, he had not even appointed a publicity manager, the job being temporarily left to Harold Keller, deputy commissioner of commerce on leave from his state job, who also handled Dewey publicity at the convention.

Thus, while neither candidate has spoken much for himself, their actions have bespeoken a personal contrast which is to be the basis of the campaign that will develop.

It was Saturday, Aug. 2, 1924. Alienists testifying at the hearing of Nathan F. Leopold Jr. and Richard A. Veterans' Information

Red Cross Will Answer Questions About GI Bill of Rights.

INFORMATION on the provisions of the GI bill of rights which became the law of the land on June 22, the date of the President's signature, now is obtainable from the home service department of the Marion county chapter of the American Red Cross.

This bill, the most extensive and far-reaching in the history of veterans' benefit legislation, provides educational benefits, loans for the purchase or construction of homes and farms, and for the purchase or extension of business and federal unemployment compensation.

To be eligible for these benefits, a veteran must have been in active service for a period of at least 90 days after Sept. 16, 1914, and before the official termination of the present war; or if service is for less than 90 days, the discharge must be due to service-connected disability. Also the discharge must be for other than dishonorable reasons.

The benefits are available to former service women as well as men. Wacs, Waves, Spars, women Marines and United States Army and Navy nurses or dietitians come under the provision.

Educational benefits: A veteran whose education was interrupted by call to military or naval duty is entitled to at least one year of schooling at federal government expense, with a $50-a-month subsistence allowance if single and $75 if there is a dependent; or dependents. If the veteran was not over 25 years of age at time of entrance into service, his education is presumed to have been interrupted.

The schooling may be taken in a high school, college or other educational institution selected by the veteran or it may be in the form of apprentice training in industry or a refresher course.

Education in addition to one year is available to the veteran in proportion to his or her length of active service. For example, a veteran who served three years could receive four years of schooling; the maximum, at government expense, provided his grades continued to be satisfactory.

Loans to Veterans: The federal government through the United States Veterans' Administration, which administers all the benefits provisions of the GI bill of rights will guarantee to any loan agency the payment of one-half of any loan made to a veteran of World War II provided the maximum is not more than $4,000.

The government will pay the first year's interest on one-half of the loan. The maximum interest rate permitted is 4 per cent and the maximum duration of the loan is 20 years.

Loans are restricted in general to the purpose of purchase, construction and repair of homes and farms, and the purchase or extension of a business.

Unemployment Compensation: If GI Joe or GI Jane upon return home is unable to find employment, the federal government will pay him or her unemployment compensation or readjustment allowance, the language of the GI bill.

The compensation for a week is $20, less any wages received by the veteran in excess of $3. Also there will be deducted any compensation received for the week from the state unemployment compensation system.

The maximum number of weeks of compensation is 52, all of which must be in the period of two years after the veteran's discharge or after the termination of the war, whichever date is the later. In the individual case the maximum weeks of compensation depend upon length of actual service—four weeks of benefits for each month of active service, except that for the first 90 days of service, the rate is eight weeks of benefits for each month of service.

Unemployment benefits to the veteran continue if he is ill or disabled so that he cannot take employment offered to him. This feature is different from the state system.

Also, a veteran who is self-employed, but earns less than $100 a month, is entitled to a readjustment allowance in the amount of the difference between his net earnings and $100. There is no similar provision in any state unemployment compensation system.

In summary, the unemployment compensation features of the GI bill provide a maximum of $20 a week or $30 a month for a totally unemployed veteran wage earner, or if partially employed, a total of earnings and unemployment compensation of $23 a week, which is about $100 a month, or if self-employed, a total of $100 a month in net earnings and unemployment compensation.

Information on all federal and state benefits under existing legislation is also furnished by the Red Cross, as result of its auxiliary relationship with the Army and the Navy.

The mercury thermometer was invented in 1714 by Gabriel Daniel Fahrenheit.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Nazi Blasphemy

A pup that lifted to the lips,
Will leave a youngster blind—
A doorway wide for the kill—
A garden path that's mined;
A porridge where death will stalk
A mother seeking mail . . .
The Nazis talk of knowing God
Will help these to prevail!

II

A street with riddled refugees
Strung down by Stukas low—
A rising howl of "Kill the Jews!"—
A child dead from a blow;
Just ashes where a town once stood
No one within alive . . .
And Hitler's cronies shout the Lord
Will see that he survives!

III

Civilians lined beside a pit
As gunmen take their aim—
A schoolboy as a hostage when
Gestapo lay the blame;
Limp bodies swinging in the air—
The weak slain by the strong . . .
When Nazis glory in such ways
They say the Lord's along!

IV

A doorknob wired up for death—
A flower vase arranged
To blow a gallant lad to bits
When by an inch it's changed;
A robot bomb that sneaks to slay
A boy as it dreams . . .
For these the Lord works miracles
A Nazi chieftain screams!

V

The torch flung into peasants' homes—
The looters crouching low—
A program for a "total war"
When chivalry must go;
A reign of terror born of hell—
A rule by dripping sword . . .
These are the things a Nazi says
Win favor from his Lord!

VI

A freedom built on massacre—
The bells running all
Long lines of famished, beaten folk
Who hear the whipmen's call;
The blackened embers of a home—
A dead child lying there . . .
For this are miracles decreed
Perverted minds declare!

VII

The Nazarene with such as these!
Their creed by him held high!
Of all the falsehoods of all times
This is the foulest lie:
A Hitler guided by the Lord
And from all harm kept free! . . .
Behold the crowning masterpiece
Of vilest blasphemy!

THE Russians are moving so fast they must have a motorcycle escort.

Imaginary plea of the Nazi military chiefs to Russians, "Could we see that again, in a motion?"

The Pullman company says the present sleeping car is to be a thing of the past before many years. No more will be manufactured. This is going to be a terrific blow to the ladder and net industries.

The new sleeping car will not have the berths down both sides of the car, with a center. It will be a car of roomette type, with running water, etc. It has always been said that the conventional sleeping-car could not survive so many years, but we shall regret a complete disappearance. We used to take a sleeper once in a while just to see if we had anything left physically.

CAN YOU REMEMBER

Away back when you could talk about sentimental thrills and hold anybody's interest. (Released by The Associated Newspapers)

They Earn It

By Truman Twill

Sen. Truman, our namesake, has spoken of like a man the first crack out of the box in a run for the vice presidency. His opponents are viewing with alarm the fact Mrs. Truman is his office staff and draws $4,500 a year for her services. She went on the congressional payroll July 1, 1931, at a salary of $2,400. This was cut to $2,280, but later she was given a higher title and since 1932, except for a few months, she has been holding down her present position.

The senator says he knew the matter would be brought up and declares he has nothing to say. Mrs. Truman, he explains, earns every penny of what she gets. We like the senator for what he says. Our own Mrs. Truman earns every penny of hers, too. Like the senator, we frankly admit we couldn't get along without her. Her services are invaluable, and if we ever run for office, we will admit it.

This whole matter should be brought out in the open and discussed courageously. Nine out of 10 married men in this country depend on their wives to see them through. They see that they get their hair cut, take the laundry and wear their overhoses to the dry cleaners. They send their suits to the cleaners. They keep the new magazines from the lost and listen sympathetically to the "band's" tales of woe.

They laugh at jokes and point out the things that had better be skipped in the future. They tell their husbands from taking themselves seriously and on occasions keep others from making the same mistake. They pick up the pieces in the living room, make sure the buttons are on the shirts and that there are enough covers on the bed in case it turns cold during the night.

They take charge of mail and keep track of the bills that must be paid. They turn up constructive criticism for their husbands' ideas, and frequently advance ideas of their own which their husbands steal. They tell the husbands why it is wrong to wear a necktie with a green shirt and see to it that clean neckties are on tap when needed. They are going gets tough, they know how to stand up to the pressure, and when their old man begins to fall off the pace, they know how to get him back into it.

The wives know where the arnica is when it's needed and they can remember the name of the fellow who is Cousin Agatha's second cousin. They can be depended on to put the tucked away somewhere in case of emergency, and they can tie up Christmas packages with care of children, make beds and put together a meal. There is scarcely one of them who doesn't earn every cent she gets, whether it be only what she can cadge out of the husband's money on the quiet, or $4,500 a year from the government.

Leather tanning, shoe, shirt, wooden furniture, cigar and cigar manufacturing and the like are the main industries of the Department of the Republic.

The Statue of Freedom surmounting the dome of the Capitol at Washington is made entirely of bronze, and weighs 14,985 pounds.

Is there any Greater Gift
than Life itself?

You can make that miraculous gift with a pint of blood that costs you nothing and rewards you richly in self-respect. • "Miracle" is not a word to be used lightly, but it is the ONLY word that completely describes what your blood, in plasma form, can do. • It is difficult to read, unmoved, the expressions of appreciation that come to the Red Cross headquarters from the wounded whose lives have been saved by blood plasma. • Listen to one young sailor. The flying fragments of a Jap bomb left him with only a faint spark of life. He was skidding down hill fast, but three transfusions pulled him back. • "You can feel it," he says. "You are sorta' sinkin' away and goin' numb all over, and then the blood plasma goes in. Mister, you've never known before what they mean by a 'lift'!"

• They—soldiers, sailors, air men and marines—are grateful to us—they, who have both done and suffered so much more than we! We can share neither their peril nor their pain. But whatever else we can or can not do to help the war effort, this we can do for them TODAY. Each of us can personally give the full individual quota of his blood. Will YOU set a miracle in motion by calling 2439 to make an appointment to donate a pint of your blood? It's an easy thing to do—a simple gift to give. It takes so little time and is quite painless. But it may mean a LIFETIME to a man who is facing death for you this minute. • Only by each of us giving our quota of blood can we really feel and know that none must die who might be saved by us.

ALLIES LAUNCH NEW NORMANDY DRIVE. With a mighty drive that sweeps over the key city of Avranches, the Allies burst out of the Normandy peninsula, advancing on a broad front which may be extended to include the chopping off of the Brest peninsula. Paris now is 160 miles away. Heavy fighting continued in the Percy area as the Americans began shelling the next German stronghold of St. Quentin. American tanks are reported to have breached the Seine river at Ducey, south of Avranches. At the eastern end of the French battlefield, French troops took Tilly La Campagne.

Navy's Vast Power

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK—Stressing that the true measure of naval strength of the future will be in horsepower rather than in tonnage, R. Adm. Earl W. Mills, assistant chief of the U. S. Navy's Bureau of Ships, recently made the following comparison. "In 1945 the U. S. Navy, measured in horsepower, will be stronger than any combination in the world. The total strength of our Navy, some 65 million horsepower, will be greater than all the power generated by Boulder, Shasta and Grand Coulee dams, and all other sources of hydro-electric power in the U. S."

Paper Gets "Head-Start" To Front

George Pezzano of 334 N. Howard St., Phila., brings his contribution of waste paper from 334 N. Howard St., Phila., U. S. Marine Corps. This manner of collection provides recreational equipment for the Marine Corps and obtains urgently-needed waste paper for reprocessing into cartons for blood plasma, food, ammunition. No matter how you dispose of your collection, it will find its way to invasion fronts to hasten victory!

To Retain Points On
Some Grades of Meat

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—A little more than half the quantity of beef steaks and roasts in the food administration two weeks ago ordered removed from rationing may become point-free.

Aug. 13, with pork loins and hams returned to the list. While officials of the WFA and the office of price administration declined to comment, it was learned today from reliable sources that the two agencies have agreed to retain point values on commercial "B" grade steaks and roasts. But such cuts from utility or "C" grade cattle will be available without ration stamps.

WFA originally ordered OPA to remove both grades from rationing by Aug. 1, contending storage space was needed for cattle coming to market. Such a move would have left only the two top grades of steaks and roasts, choice and grade, with point values.

A 100-watt electric light bulb burning continuously would consume nine-tenths of a ton of coal in a year, the bituminous coal. Institute points out in a bulletin on wartime fuel conservation. Sixty-two per cent of all electricity is generated by bituminous coal, and last year the electric utilities used one out of every eight tons of bituminous coal produced, the Institute said.

MARION SERGEANT
IN PLANE EXPLOIT

Acts as Co-Pilot After Bomber Is Hit.

Staff Sgt. Harold E. Lloyd of 303 East Mark street recently acted as co-pilot of a bomber after one of the other severely wounded, according to a dispatch from an Eighth Air Force bomber station in England. The bomber had gone over France to bomb objectives there during invasion operations and had been hit by flak. A load of bombs had not been used and could not be dropped into the channel because it was filled with ships of the invasion armada. Second Lt. Robert MacCombs of Hollywood, Mich., co-pilot of the bomber, was hit in the leg during the attack. Sgt. Lloyd applied a tourniquet and offered the pilot morphine, but he refused, fearing it would dull his brain and hinder his flying. He directed the rest of the crew on the home trip. Lt. MacCombs directed the bomber to a safe landing in England.

Before entering service early in January 1943 Sgt. Lloyd was a press apprentice in the Press and Stereotyping team of The Marion Star and is on leave from his duties for the duration.

Nazis Again Believed
Jamming Radio Relays

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Aug. 2—Jamming of short wave relays from Europe to American networks, presumably by the Nazis, has increased, on the circuit from Ankara, Turkey.

The jamming became particularly noticeable in a Max Hill broadcast to NBC when he attempted to describe the status of relations between Germany and Turkey. The interference continued throughout except for a brief interval when Hill was quoting comment from the Berlin radio. Because of that clear interval, the jamming was attributed to the Germans.

This sort of interference is developed by operating a transmitter on the identical wavelength of the station sending. It produces squeals and other noises in the receiver.
